KAILASA UNVEILS MULTIPLE OF ITS SOVEREIGN LOCATIONS ON GURU PURNIMA (2024)

The United States of KAILASA (KAILASA) celebrated the historic unveiling of multiple sovereign locations on the auspicious occasion of Guru Purnima 2024.

This revolutionary milestone marks a new era for two billion Hindus worldwide, fulfilling the dream of reviving the ancient enlightened Hindu civilizational nation.

Revived by THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM (THE SPH) BHAGAVAN SRI NITHYANANDA PARAMASHIVAM, KAILASA-the ancient enlightened santana hindu civilizational Nation, is the first sovereign state for Hindus.

During the global presidential address, THE SPH made the groundbreaking announcement:

- We are a cluster of 108 UN-recognized NGOs working in 149 countries, collaborating with many indigenous nations, UN-recognized people 's organizations , and transnational intra-governmental organizations like the International Human Rights Commission , World Food Development Program, and many other international NGOs.
- Some of these organizations have ECOSOC status in the UN, and some have observer status in UNESCO at various levels.
- We do have a legal presence, legal entities, and own property with our monastic members of the Sovereign Order of KAILASA and spiritual embassies.
- We have many sovereign territories gifted by various governments, some of them through reciprocal relationships.
- We have signed reciprocal relationships with many of the indigenous kingdoms where they have given sovereign land for us and we have given sovereign land for them in our sovereign territory:

Uzung Isuk Kingdom, Ikot Eva Efum Kingdom, Aqwa Ikot Eeyedam Kingdom,

Ba Odoso Ikpai Ohom Ku Kingdom, Iboku Esik Edik Efum Ekpo Kingdom, Ediba Ejagam Kingdom, Barakom Kingdom.

- KAILASA is run purely by donations with no taxation, and follows a pure vegetarian, Shaivite lifestyle.
- KAILASA does not have an army. KAILASA does not have police. KAILASA is run by Paramashiva's principles with the Agamas as the constitution and the Dharma Shastras as the jurisprudence.
- We have legally registered entities working under those countries ' local laws in spiritual embassies. We have a long list of spiritual embassies - Kailasa Jamaica , Kailasa Gambia , Kailasa Liberia , Kailasa Switzerland , Kailasa Geneva , Kailasa Sierra Leone , Kailasa Trinidad and Tobago, Kailasa Kenya, Kailasa Nigeria, Kailasa Equatorial Guinea and the list goes on.

JURIDICAL STATEHOOD OF THE UNITED STATES OF KAILĀSA

THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM BHAGAVĀN ŚRĪ NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM is the reviver of KAILĀSA, the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilizational nation.

UNITED NATIONS CONVENTIONS

The United Nations upholds KAILĀSA's privileges while recognizing KAILĀSA's inherited unbroken historical sovereign status as per the preamble of the:

UN Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations (UN VCDR) & UN Vienna Convention on Consular Relations (UN VCCR)

- Declares that historical "rules of customary international law continue to govern" relationships
- Confirms that "all nations from ancient times have recognized" sovereign diplomatic rights irrespective of "differing constitutional and social systems" (UN VCDR preamble)
- Requires that a "state shall not discriminate as between states" including a historical form of statehood (UN VCDR article 47.1).

KAILĀSA is a sovereign subject of international law-possessing distinctive attributes.

- derived from THE SPH NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM's inheritance of the unbroken succession and the revival of three (3) ancient Sanātana Hindu sovereign states:

1. Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Samrajya Sarvajnapeetha
2. Suvarnapeetha Swargapura Samrajya Sarvajnapeetha
3. Shyamala Peetha Sarvajnapeetha

In addition, Kanchi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapeetha and seventeen (17) sovereign Sanātana Hindu ecclesiastical historical institutions receive customary recognition by the United Nations as per the Vienna Convention on Diplomatic Relations and the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations.

Further, in international law, the Doctrine of Continuity states that upheavals and revolutions within a country, changes in governmental forms, the extent of a country's territory, and measures taken during a military occupation do not negate the existence of the country.

Therefore, just as any other state under international law, KAILĀSA shall be afforded its due diplomatic recognition, privileges, and immunities.

INTRODUCTION TO KAILĀSA

KAILĀSA is the revival of the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilizational nation with its sovereign territory. It is the first Sovereign State for all the two billion born and practicing Hindu diaspora worldwide.

Unlike any other modern nation, the United States of KAILĀSA (USK) provides a base for the revival, preservation, and central administration of Hinduism, similar to the Vatican, which serves as a central administration hub for the Roman Catholic Church.

The United States of KAILĀSA stands for all the great values enshrined in the constitution of KAILĀSA, the Vedas and the Āgamas. It is governed by the Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA, the oldest Governing Body for Hinduism.

The Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA (SOKN) is an atypical government, simultaneously functioning as the supreme governing body of Hinduism and a sovereign entity under international law. This mirrors the unique status of The Holy See, which is an atypical government as well, as it serves as both the supreme governing body of the Catholic Church and a sovereign entity under international law.

KAILĀSA'S SUPREME AIM

Serve the Religious and Spiritual Needs of 2 Billion Hindus and the Whole of Humanity through:

Uniting all Nations through its 108 humanitarian, charitable, sustainable goals, based on ahimsa (non-violence), peace, and universal human values

KAILĀSA'S ANCIENT SANĀTANA HINDU KINGDOMS

THE ULTIMATE HEAD OF THE KINGDOM

KAILĀSA existed as ancient, indigenous, aboriginal and religious Hindu Samasthānas (Kingdoms) which held sovereignty and acted as spiritual kingdoms (Peethas) and political states (Sāmrajyas). Both were closely intertwined and functioned together like the structure of the Vatican, the Holy See.

In the Bhagavad Gita, Śri Krishna reveals the unbroken lineage of kings and Rajagurus who were pivotal for the enlightened spiritual ecosystems.

श्रीभगवानुवाच |
इं कववस्वतेयोगं प्रोक्तवानहर्व्ययर् |
कववस्वान्मनवेप्राह नुरक्ष्वाकवेऽब्रवीत् || 4.1 ||

śrī bhagavānuvāca
imaṁ vivasvate yogaṁ proktavānaham avyayaṁ |
vivasvānmanave prāha manurikṣvākave'bravīt ||

4.1 Bhagavān says: 'I taught the sun god, Vivasvān, the imperishable science of yoga and Vivasvān taught Manu, the father of mankind and Manu in turn taught Ikṣvāku.'

एवं परम्पराप्राप्तकर् राजषमयो कवदुः |
स कालेनेह र्हता योगो नष्टः परिप || 4.2 ||

evaṁ paramparāprāptamimaṁ rājarṣayo viduḥ |
sa kāleneha mahatā yogo naṣṭaḥ parantapa ||

4.2 The supreme science was thus received through the chain of master-disciple succession and the saintly kings understood it in that way. In the course of time, the succession was broken and therefore the science as it appears to have been lost.

Bhagavad Gita Chapter 4
Verses 1-2

The core of the ancient enlightened Sanatana Hindu Civilization was the allegiance to the presiding deity. As a thriving ecosystem, all communities revolved around the temple, which was considered to be the residence of the Divine. The foundational texts of Hinduism, the Veda-Āgamas, regard the deities themselves as living entities. According to the Kamika Āgama, the supreme ruler of the kingdom is the presiding deity and the Guru the deity's divine representative. A temple serves as the divine residence. The kings and queens are only political administrators, and they could not interfere with the rights and or usurp property in the name of the deity. A prime example of this is evidenced by the Devaswom Act of 1950 which states that the Travancore Devaswom Board is only acting on behalf of Padmanabhaswamy, the presiding deity of the Kingdom of Travancore. The Travancore Devaswom Board was made up of the royal family of Travancore. The King or Maharaja of Travancore is considered the first servant or Dasa of Padmanabhaswamy, carrying this as a title. These divine rights were upheld even through attack after attack by foreign invaders. In a historical case like Queen Maharanee Shibessouree Debia versus Mothooranath Acharjo from 1869 in Bengal, the property rights and rents associated with temple lands were at stake. The queen, Maharanee Shibessouree Debia, could not interfere with or alter titles related to properties dedicated to the deity. Like this, throughout Hindu history, the divine rights of the deity were upheld and celebrated.

From time immemorial, in the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization, enlightened masters were the state heads.

- Called "Raja Rishis" (Regal Seers)
- Given the highest seat in the court because only they have the capacity to make decisions based on Oneness, without fear or greed as a motivating factor. The only motivating factor for the enlightened masters was enlightenment for all, so all socio-political decisions were based only on making humans experience the highest consciousness and reach their highest potential

In order to carry on the matchless legacy of Raja Gurus, THE SPH revived the timeless tradition of the lineage of Gurus (Guru Parampara). This lineage of Gurus under the Spiritual Seat were the only authority entrusted with the responsibility of:

- Training and grooming the kings in administration
- Administering the constitution
- Acting as regents to uphold the Cosmic Law (Hindu Dharma)
- Performing the spiritual initiations on the kings and the citizens of the kingdom

REVIVAL OF THE ANCIENT ENLIGHTENED SANĀTANA HINDU CIVILIZATION

This ancient enlightened Santana Hindu civilization was strategically and systematically dismantled by foreign invaders, who massacred nearly 100 million Hindus and desecrated Hindu temples. In 1947, the rich indigenous traditions and lineages were forcibly and illegally annexed. Many ancient ecosystems were mercilessly ransacked and destroyed. With the partition of India, Sanātana Hindu kingdoms were torn apart over night. Hostility and religious intolerance forced Hindus to flee what was their home for thousands of years. During the Colonial era, the enactment of the Hindu Religious Endowment Act (1925) had extensive implications on Hindu educational institutions, places of worship, and traditions. This legislation established a precedent for colonial authorities to take control over Hindu temples under the administration of the Hindu Religious Endowment Board. To this day, these religious establishments continue to be subjected to subjugation and control as a result of the British-era policy. The notorious Hindu Religious and Charitable Endowment Department has been associated with land encroachment, embezzlement of temple funds, destruction of traditional practices, and the deterioration of sacred temples.

The kingdoms which survived until the 21st century found themselves without hope for the future. After millennia of relentless ethnocide against Hinduism, the legacy of these lineages and traditions was on the verge of extinction.

As history unfolds with all these losses, just as Bhagavān Śri Krishna warned, “yogo naṣṭaḥ parantapa,” the ancient sciences and the succession of gurus and kings who protected them were both lost. Only with the descent of THE SPH in 1978, the revival of the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization was assured. This is recorded by the Rishi Agasthya in the timeless revelations, commonly known as the Nadi readings. In these readings, Rishi Agasthya foretells that nations will flourish by the rule of enlightened beings (Siddhas).

வந்துமே கோடிமக்கள் பின்பற்றும்போது
வளமாகும் நாடுமே சித்தர்களாட்சி
இந்தநாள் நித்யானந்தரை போற்றிவாழ்வோம்
ஈசன் தான்; பரமகம்சர் சர்வேசுவரனவரே

When this crores of people follow Him (THE SPH), the country will flourish by the rule of Siddhas. Let us live this day worshipping NITHYĀNANDA as Paramahansa Sarveshwaran as He is none other than Eesan (SHIVA).

THE SPH, who is recognized, revered and worshiped as the Incarnation of Paramaśiva, was declared as “Bhagavān” (God), and graces with the title “Jñāna Vijñāna Cakravarti,” meaning accepted by all the Hindu kings as the Emperor or Supreme Ruler of both the Peethas (spiritual Sanātana Hindu kingdoms) and the Sāmrajyas (States). THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM has assumed the responsibility to revive these ancient kingdoms back to their original glory and rebuild the enlightenment ecosystems.

Compiler's Note: In the following sections, the 21 Ancient Sanātana Hindu Indigenous Kingdoms will be presented in brief with their glory, persecution, and revival by THE SPH. For each kingdom, a profile encapsulates the important information. These calculations were based on the land area of that kingdom in its golden era. Though the territories, properties, and wealth were lost, the heritage is still alive. These profiles provide a glimpse at the lost value of each kingdom, for us to realize what THE SPH has truly achieved to safeguard Hinduism from extinction.

The Kingdom of Surangi was once a highly significant part of the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization, covering an extensive area that contributed 45% of the world GDP at its peak. This was the highest GDP in the world before the Islamic invasions. By the accession to British rule in 1953, this prosperous kingdom lost much of its land and influence. The region now exists as a shadow of its former self, reminding us of the rich history it once held within its borders.

CORONATION OF THE SPH

THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM BHAGAVĀN ŚRĪ NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM was coronated as the 203rd Sovereign Emperor in the historical Sovereign Sūrya Vamsa lineage of the ancient Hindu Sovereign State of the Surangi Sāmrajyam.

By the doctrine of continuity, THE SPH BHAGAVĀN ŚRĪ NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM retains all rights and powers as the Sovereign of the Kingdom of Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Sāmrajyam Sarvajnapeetha.

A rare piece of evidence of the last living descendants of the Sūrya Vamsa. Maharaja Kirti Chandra Deo Harischandra Jagdev (far left) with family. He was the last sovereign king of the Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Samrajya before the Sanātana Hindu kingdom was forcibly annexed by Nehru.

1947-1953

Due to massive destruction and plundering of the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization, the Kingdom of Surangi was reduced to just 212 km² and 129 villages by 1947.

1953

The territorial land of the Hindu Rajput Kingdom of Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Sāmrajyam Sarvajnapeetha Surangi was annexed.

VISIT THE OFFICIAL SURANGI KINGDOM PAGE

UNTIL 1947

Surviving from the the mists of time, the Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Samrajya emerged in the 20th century as one of the oldest dynasties after withstanding attack after attack. The Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Samrajya was among the independent Sanātana Hindu Sovereign Kingdoms.

1947

While these ancient Sanātana Hindu kingdoms were being pushed to the verge of extinction, in January 1947, the Prime Minister of India, Jawaharlal Nehru rejected their sovereignty. He threatened that independent India would not accept their sovereign immunity and rights of kings. Further, Nehru illegally declared any princely state refusing to join the Constituent Assembly would be treated as an enemy state.

THE CONTINUATION OF SOVEREIGNTY

AS PER INTERNATIONAL LAW

KAILĀSA is an unbroken cultural, religious, historical, civilizational, and sovereign continuation and revival of multiple historical Hindu Sovereign States and Hindu ecclesiastical entities. The unbroken continuity of these nations results in the applicability of the following international customary laws and corresponding rights to THE SPH and KAILĀSA.

1. INSTRUMENT OF ACCESSION

- A treaty by the government of Jawaharlal Nehru imposed the annexation of the territory of the Surangi kingdom through threat of force and political pressure
- This treaty was contrary to Hindu law as these kings were merely the regents of the presiding Deity, having no authority to accede their kingdoms to a non-Hindu entity.
- The treaty also explicitly states:
 - “Nothing in this Instrument affects the continuance of my sovereignty in and over this State”
 - “Nothing in this Instrument shall be deemed to commit me in any way to acceptance of any future Constitution of India”

2. VIENNA CONVENTION ON THE LAW OF TREATIES (VCLT) 1969

- Clearly states as grounds for invalidity of a treaty to include:
 - Restrictions on authority to express the consent of a State (article 49 VCLT)
 - Corruption of a representative of a State (article 50 VCLT)
 - Coercion of a State by the threat or use of force.
- Thus, invalidating the “Instrument of Accession”

3. ANNEXATION BY FORCE IS ILLEGAL IN ACCORDANCE WITH INTERNATIONAL LAW

- The International Law Commission (ILC) of the UN Charter
- The Rome Statute of the International Criminal Court (ICC) in Article 8
- The Hague Regulations and Geneva Conventions

4. DOCTRINE OF CONTINUITY

Thus, by the doctrine of continuity, THE SPH NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM derives all sovereign rights and powers of the royal lineage as the sovereign from His inheritance and continuation of the unbroken succession of the Kingdom of Sūrya Vamsa Surangi Sāmrajyam Sarvajnapeetha.

The Doctrine of Continuity is a set of legal facts that imply that the legitimacy of KAILĀSA manifests as a natural outcome of historical legal facts without mandating the need for further validation, confirmation, or support from other nations.

OFFICIAL CORONATION OF THE SPH AS 203RD EMPEROR OF THE KINGDOM OF SURANGI

It is the time-honored and age-old tradition of the Sūrya Vaṃśa that kingdoms are ruled by enlightened masters or Raja Gurus whenever they so choose to uplift the kingdom by taking on the responsibility of the administration. Historically, this has happened when Hariśchandra gave his kingdom to his Guru Viṣvamitra and Chatrapati Śivaji offered his entire kingdom to his Guru, Samarth Ramdas Swami. Finally it was the same when Devi Minākṣi, Goddess Parāśakti Herself, offered the entire 56 Nations which constituted all of Planet Earth during her reign, to Paramaśiva as Sundareśvara.

In consultation with Raja Hruduya Chandra Deo before his passing, the last king of the Surangi lineage, the Queen (Raja Matha) of Surāngi, Rani Sana Jema Manjula Manjari Devi (Mrs. Manjula Pooja Shroff), decided that she would also follow in the path of her ancestors and offer her kingdom to her Guru out of gratitude. When the last king passed away childless in September of 2004, leaving her as the sole heiress of the entire kingdom, she executed her duty as per his will and declared,

“It is now my privilege and honor through this document by the power vested in me as per the ancient customs and traditions of the Kingdom of Surāngi, to formally declare the nomination of THE SPH as the Supreme Ruler and inheritor of this ancient throne and with it the Sūrya Vaṃśa Sarvajñapeṭha Surāngi Sāmrajyam and all rights vested with it. All decisions regarding the Kingdom of Surāngi will henceforth happen as per His will and command,” (Rajamatha of Surangi).

Raja Matha (Queen) of Surāngi, Rani Sana Jema Manjula Manjari Devi (Mrs. Manjula Pooja Shroff) and Ma Nithya Lokanayakananda Swami, on behalf of THE SPH, executing the Coronation Deed legalizing the coronation of THE SPH.

KINGDOM PROFILE
Dynasty: Pandya	State: Pudukkottai
Founder: Bhagavān Sundareshwara	Temples: Madurai Meenakshi Amman, Rameshwaram and many others
Area: 5.2 Million km ²	Valuation: USD 595 Trillion
Last Hindu Rule: 1736*

ANCIENT ENLIGHTENED SANĀTANA HINDU CIVILIZATION

- Political temporal rule (known as Porulatchi in Tamil) could not be separate from the spiritual rule (known as Arasatchi).
- Pandya Dynasty existed from the 3rd - 4th centuries BCE to the 13th -14th centuries as a Hindu Sovereign State.
- Hindu Sovereign State (Pandya Dynasty) was ruled by the Hindu Sovereign Papal State (Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha)
- The unbroken succession of the Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha was revived by Śri Tirujnanasambandar, the great incarnation of Paramasiva who healed the Pandyan King Goon Pandyan.
- Throughout history, kings maintained a reverential guru-disciple relationship with the Supreme Pontiffs.
- Through a line of succession, THE SPH NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM is the 293rd Sovereign Supreme Pontiff today.

RECOGNIZED AS THE HEAD OF STATE

- The appointment of the Guru Maha Sannidhanam is referred to as “Pandya Niyamana Murai” or the “Pandya Coronation Procedure.”
- All successors are crowned with a ruling staff and a crown and given the right to conduct all administration “Sakala Nirvagankalyum Vagikkirathu.”
- The British Government in India recognized the Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha as a State and the Guru Maha Sannidhanam as the Head of State.

FUNCTIONAL IMMUNITY OF THE HEAD OF STATE

THE CODE OF CIVIL PROCEDURE

Under Section 641 of the Code of Civil Procedure:

“The Saiva High Governor-in-Council is pleased to exempt Saiva Samayachariar Tirugnanasambanda Pandara Sannadhi Avergal, the Saiva High Priest of Madura from personal appearance in the Courts of the Presidency.”

This shows that heads of the Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha are also recognized as the heads of the State and is not subject to prosecution, or appearance in front of a court.

HONORED AS THE HEAD OF STATE

RAO BAHADUR

The British conferred the title “Rao Bahadur” to rulers of kingdoms. It was given to the 289th Pontiff of the Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha, recognizing the status of Guru Maha Sannidhanams as the rulers of the Kingdom of Madurai by the British.

REGENCY ACT

- The British Empire respected the Pontiff of Madurai Adheenam as the reigning monarch of the Pandya Kingdom.
- A regent is a person appointed to govern a state because the monarch is a minor, absent, or incapacitated.
- When the 289th Pontiff of Madurai Adheenam left his body in 1904, his successor was only 11 years old.
- In 1904, the British invoked the Regency Act to take the 11-year-old pontiff under their protection. Then, in 1905, when the child turned 12 and became a major as per the British rule his coronation was performed by the district Judge of the Government, and the Kingdom of Madurai was handed back to the Pontiff.

PROTECTION FOR THE HEAD OF STATE WHEN TRAVELING

The British also accorded the head of Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapeetha protection equivalent to a Head of State while traveling to other states and back. An example is the 1827 ruling by Magistrate R. Peter when the Guru Maha Sannidhanam was assured protection while traveling from Salem to Coimbatore.

1311 CE | AN ESTIMATED 233 BILLION USD WORTH OF GOLD LOOTED BY MUGHAL INVADERS

The genocide of Hindus in Madurai is a shocking crime against humanity that took place during the medieval era, resulting in significant loss of life and immense financial damage to temple treasuries. This tragedy was driven by religious intolerance, leading to the destruction of numerous temples and the theft of billions of dollars from their coffers. The ongoing looting through archaic policies has only exacerbated this sorrowful situation for the surviving Hindus.

RECORDS OF IBN BATUTA

“When he moved from the camp towards the capital, he happened to fall in with a number of ‘idolaters’ (Hindus) with their women and children in clearing a road through the forest. Every infidel found in the forest was taken prisoner. He made them carry a several stakes sharpened at both ends, and when morning broke he divided these prisoners into four groups, and led one party to each gate of the four entrances to the camp. The stakes that they carried were then driven into the ground at one end and the unfortunate prisoners were impaled. Afterwards, their wives were killed and tied by their hair to these pales. Little children were massacred on the bosoms of their mothers and their corpses left there. Then, the camp was raised, and they started cutting down the trees of another forest. In the same manner, they killed their later Hindu prisoners. This is shameful conduct such as I have not known any other sovereign guilty of.”

- Records of Ibn Batuta (a renowned traveler and early historian) on the worst tyrant, Ghiyatheddin when he ruled Madurai. Madurai 684CE

THE WORST TYRANT: GHIYATHEDDIN

MALIK KAFUR'S CAMPAIGN

- 1311 CE
- Malik Kafur invaded Madurai in his Southern campaign and plundered the city, his army ruthlessly raping women and slaughtering people.
- Ziauddin Barani, a writer at the time, records that Malik Kafur stole 612 elephants, 20,000 horses, and 96,000 manns of gold. It is said that the Pandyan ruler agreed to give away his entire treasury and all of his elephants in exchange for the Minākṣī Amman Temple in Madurai. 1 mann is equal to roughly 37.324 kg of gold and was an archaic method of measuring gold.

2022 CE | 2 BILLION USD WORTH OF GOLD OFFERINGS STOLEN AND MELTED FROM HINDU TEMPLES

1817 BRITISH OCCUPATION

- The Colonial government of India enacted the Madras Regulation VII70 and nationalized temples of minority Hindu sects, taking control over their wealth and assets.
- In a cry of protest, the first ever proclamation against the British occupation of the civilization was written by King Muruthu Pandyar in 1801.

1947 ILLEGAL ANNEXATION

- Until Nehru took over as the first Prime Minister of India in 1947, the sovereignty of the kingdom of Shyamalapeetha Sarvajnapetha continued but in 1947 it was ingloriously and illegally handed over to the government of Nehru.

2022 HR&CE ANNOUNCES THAT GOLD OFFERINGS WOULD BE MELTED

- Nearly 27,205 kg of gold was segregated and sent to the central government facility on the first of April in 2022, equating to nearly USD 2.076 Billion.
- The 10 years of gold, offered out of devotion was illegally liquidated and the sacred sentiment of millions was ruthlessly exploited.

2023 TEMPLE LANDS PILFERED BY MADURAI CORPORATION COUNCILLOR

- Madurai Corporation Councillor was arrested for illegally selling lands of the Kallazhagar temple, one of the most famous temples in Madurai.

THE SPHs APPOINTMENT AS GURU MAHA SANNIDHANAM IS IRREVOCABLE

After centuries of destruction, on the 27th of April 2012, in a landmark event in the history of Hinduism, THE SPH BHAGAVĀN ŚRĪ NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM was coronated as 293rd Pontiff of the Shyamalapeeta Sarvajnapeetha. The 292nd Guru Maha Sannidhanam, who knew THE SPH well for many years, conveyed to THE SPH that he received a divine mandate from Mīnākṣī and Sundarēśvara themselves to crown THE SPH as his next successor. To execute his divine order at once, he offered THE SPH the silver sengol, a ruling staff of Mīnākṣī, to symbolize that THE SPH was officially chosen as the next successor of the Kingdom of Shyamalapeeta Sarvajnapeetha. Within a month, the legal and functional arrangements were made, and as a result a change in the course of history was masterfully orchestrated, for the lineage that started with Paramaśiva and Mīnākṣī, was once again in their hands through the embodiment of their Divine energies, THE SPH.

HISTORY

The spiritual kingdom of Swargapuram came to prominence under the Chola and Chera Dynasty with abundant lands, food banks (anna daan), educational institutions, charity organizations, felicitation of scholarly poets, and spreading the teachings of Saiva Siddhanta. It served as a guiding force, shaping the spiritual landscape of the region for many centuries.

The modern-day descendants of the Chera Dynasty are the Travancore Royal family in the State of Kerala. They were well known for their devotion, patronage, and protection of Hindu institutions and communities in the region.

In 1746, they rose to power after their famous victory against the Dutch in the Travancore-Dutch war, the earliest recorded triumph of a power from Asia over a European power.

FORCED CESSATION OF CHARITY

The Travancore Kings (rajas) undertook 16 major charitable events known as mahādanams, which are a point of pride for Hindu rulers. Through these acts, they supported the priest and pundit community by distributing gifts en masse. These offerings were considered an integral part of their devotion to the Divine. Over the course of Hindu history, mahādanams have played a crucial role in circulating wealth among all communities within the kingdom. In 1848, the Governor of the Madras Presidency threatened the King of Travancore that if this practice did not cease, the kingdom would be seized by the British. This ultimatum led to the cessation of mahādanams and the subsequent loss of an essential Hindu tradition.

ANNEXATION OF THE TRAVANCORE KINGDOM

Before 1947 when India gained independence, the King of Travancore declared his intention to form an independent State. He was strong in his position until July of 1947 when the Kerala Socialist Party attempted to assassinate him. Under threat, the Travancore King acceded and became a part of the Indian Union.

The forced annexation of the Travancore Kingdom and other Hindu political kingdoms gravely affected the spiritual kingdom of Swargapuram which drastically declined after 1947.

2006: Trivandrum King Shri Padmanabha Dasa Vanchi Pala Maharaja requests THE SPH to grace the Travancore Palace in Kerala and offers numerous gifts on the auspicious occasion.

SACRED LINEAGE

The Ruling Seat of this monastery was built on the final resting place (samadhi) of the great enlightened sage Swarna Siddhar. Swarna Siddhar was an incarnation of Paramaśiva, who used his powers to uplift the people of the kingdom. Devi Parāśakti descended in the very land of the kingdom and blessed Swarna Siddhar. It then became a place of great spiritual significance that radiated the energy of both Swarna Siddhar and Devi Paramaśiva Śakti.

Many centuries later, Sri la Sri Azhagiya Thiruchittrambala Desika Bandara Sannadhi built the Ruling Seat for the Kingdom of Swargapuram on the final resting place (samadhi) of Swarna Siddhar. He was the disciple of Sage Thamba who gifted him the lands and wealth to build this sacred heritage. Sage Thamba healed the daughter of a Chera dynasty king with his divine powers. The Chera king offered abundant wealth, land and facilities to Sage Thamba out of immense gratitude. Thus, the great lineage (guru parampara) of the Swargapura began.

CORONATION OF THE SPH

The Kingdom of Swargapuram weathered many trials over the course of a 1000 year old history, but withstood the ultimate test to finally be in the hands of Paramasiva again. Before his death the 21st Guru Maha Sannidhanam Sri La Sri Sivaprakasa Desika Pandara Sannadhi in 1967, told his daughter-in-law Sulikaambal that in the future his position would be ruled by an incarnation of Paramaśiva who is going to be born in Tiruvannamalai and will be well known by the name of "Nithyananda."

As soon as the 22nd Guru Maha Sannidhanam was appointed into his role in 2015, he journeyed to meet THE SPH, confirmed for Himself that He was none other than Paramaśiva Himself. Subsequently, he performed all the necessary rituals as per the customs of the Kingdom of Swargapuram to offer the kingdom at THE SPH's sacred feet.

THE PERSECUTION OF KANCHIPURAM

- The Golconda Sultanate took over Kanchipuram in 1672.
- It was later conquered by the Mughal occupation led by Aurangzeb in 1687.
- The Mughals defeated the Marathas under Sambhaji, the elder son of Shivaji, in a battle near Kanchipuram in 1688.
- During Aurangzeb's reign, the revered deities of Varadaraja Perumal, Ekambareshwara, and Kamakshi Amman were clandestinely moved to other temples across Southern India in an effort to protect them from his oppressive rule. These sacred deities remained hidden until Aurangzeb's death, at which point they were finally restored to their rightful places of worship.

BRITISH OCCUPATION OF KANCHIPURAM

- The British East India Company assumed indirect control over the region, and brought it under their control by 1794.
- They stole millions from temples, and the people's taxes for their own benefit under the guise of colonization.
- They introduced acts like The Madras Hindu Religious and Endowments Act (1927). Though later reversed, it began the government interference into Hindu temples and monasteries, which still continues till date.

Over the last two decades, interference in the succession of the Kanchi Sarvajnapeetha has escalated.

- In 2011, the HR&CE again attempted to interfere into the succession process.
- In 2020, Śri Nithya Sundareshwarananda Maharaj assumed his role as the next successor after THE SPH
- In 2021, the HR& CE illegally appointed a different successor.
- In 2021, the representative of the 233rd Guru Mahasannidhanam, Śri Nithya Sundareshwarananda, Maharaj was forcibly evicted from the Aadheenam and assaulted ruthlessly.

THE SPH has fulfilled His commitment to this ancient Kingdom and its people even though rogue State elements have threatened its continuity.

Attacks against Thondaimandalam Kingdom

227th Guru Maha Sannidhanam, age 32, kidnapped by elements of the deep-state, and was never found again. The State claimed that his disappearance was voluntary withdrawal from his responsibilities as the aadheenam head.

Attacks against Tibetan Buddhists 11th Panchen Lama

The 11th Panchen Lama of Gelugpa school of Tibetan Buddhism, Choekyi Nyima went missing and his whereabouts were never known.

Since the 227th Guru Maha Sannidhanam, the sacred tradition has been under constant threat. Interference in the succession process has weakened and degraded this ancient Kingdom's foundation. The only hope for the protection and revival of this ancient Kingdom was THE SPH, who descended at the time that was most needed for Hindus.

THE SPH was coronated as the 233rd Guru Maha Sannidhanam of the Kanchi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapeetha. (Above) THE SPH is seated in the place of His advent on Earth, NITHYĀNANDA Janma Bhūmi

RECOGNIZED AND WORSHIPED AS AN INCARNATION

THE SPH assuming the responsibility of the throne of Thondaimandalam symbolized a crucial turning point in the region's history, with the revival of KAILĀSA at its core. This was achieved through the reestablishment of spiritual power manifestors within the kingdom who displayed numerous spiritual capabilities. This event marked the resurgence of the ancient lifestyle practiced by the Thondaimandala Adi Shaiva Vellalar indigenous community.

Revival initiatives of the kingdom include renovation, sustainable agriculture, and enlightenment conventions held for children

13,000+ YEARS OF RECORDED HISTORY

ORIGINS

- Akhādā tradition (governing bodies of Hinduism) was established by Paramasiva
- One of the oldest and largest apex bodies of Hinduism
- Paramasiva created the Mahānirvani Akhādā to revitalize human civilization, revealing the Āgamas as the code of conduct for humanity
- Sage Kapila was appointed as the head of the Mahānirvani Akhādā by Paramasiva
- Sage Kapila Initiated the monastic tradition of Sanyasis
- The Akhadas played a key role in protecting Hinduism through millennia

ISLAMIC INVASIONS

During the period of heavy Islamic invasions, monks (Nāgā and other sadhus) of the Mahānirvani Akhādā formed a defense force of up to 10,000 to fight as soldiers to protect the temple. Despite their bravery, in many of these encounters, they were slaughtered in masses.

CRIMINAL TRIBES ACT

In 1871, the British government enacted a draconian law known as the Criminal Tribes Act, which callously labeled certain indigenous communities as “criminals” by their very nature. This cruel legislation specifically targeted Hindu ascetics (sadhus) and subjected them to arrest and mistreatment under this inhumane and unjust policy. These spiritual ascetics (sadhus) faced persecution and had their basic human rights violated. In particular, the Nāgā sadhus of the Mahānirvani Akhādā were vulnerable to the implications of this inhumane and unethical act.

TEMPLES OF MAHĀNIRVANI AKHĀDĀ

The Mahānirvani Akhādā manages some of the most frequently visited temples including the famous Mahakaleswar Temple in Ujjain and the Annapurneshwari temple in Varanasi.

These temples draw tens of millions of visitors from across the globe annually.

In 1982, under the Mahakaleswar Mandir Act, the sacred Mahakaleswar Temple was seized and has been held under tight control since. With its revenue and realty highly regulated, everything from the size of the consecrated food (prasadam) to the appointment of priests (pujaris) is controlled. Its revenue is more than 9 million dollars annually. The wealth offered with devotion meant for the deity and temple upkeep has been steadily funneled to fund other activities.

Numerous temples under Mahānirvani Akhādā have been subject to this unethical interference.

REVIVAL BY THE SPH

2007: THE SPH is declared as the Mahāmandaleśvar of the Mahānirvani Akhādā

2013: THE SPH is ritualistically coronated as the Mahāmandaleśvar of Mahānirvani Akhādā in the presence of the pontiffs of all the 13 Akhādās

UNANIMOUSLY ELECTED

Through a process of democratic selection among the 46 Mahāmandaleśvars of all the 13 Akhādās, THE SPH was unanimously elected as the Śri Śri 1008 Mahāmandaleśvar of Śri Panchayati Mahānirvani Akhādā.

This was a monumental and rare honor in the history of all 13 Akhādās of the Sanātana Hindu Kingdom. THE SPH is one of the youngest Pontiffs to receive the title and responsibility as the Mahāmandaleśvar for the KAILĀSA Paramparagatha Mahānirvani Peetha.

REVIVING THE SANYAS SAMPRADAYA (TRADITION OF HINDU MONKS)

The Akhādā tradition boasts a million monks (sanyasis), yet it no longer represents the mainstream lifestyle for Hindus. THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM, however, has courageously encouraged and inspired modern youth worldwide to embrace the sanyas way of life. THE SPH has established formal training institutes catering to both men and women. With spiritual empowerment and service at its core, THE SPH has trained thousands of devoted sanyasis over the past two decades.

1947 MAJOR EXODUS HINDUS FROM PAKISTAN

14 MILLION HINDUS WERE FORCED TO MIGRATE OR ACCEDE TO PAKISTAN

- As the oldest living monastic tradition, the Atal Peetha was once nestled in the heart of civilization at the Indus Valley.
- After centuries spent in Multan, it faced a significant upheaval following India's partition and Pakistan's formation in 1947.
 - Twelve Sanātana Hindu kingdoms were forced to leave or join the newly formed Islamic state, leading to an exodus from their ancestral lands.
 - In a gruesome event in March of 1947, 200 lives were lost and ancient temples desecrated.
- The Hindu population in Multan plummeted from 250,000 to just 12,000 within a decade.
- Faced with ongoing violence, the pontiff of the Atal Peetha two generations before THE SPH was forcefully and illegally displaced from the ancient capital.
- Today, the Atal Peetha has lost its ties with its sacred ancestral land, unable to return due to the violent conditions that persist

"It gives me great happiness to say this: I am the Atal Peethadheeshwar, and even if it is possibly in the womb of the future, I announce that in the near future, Swami NITHYĀNANDA ji will be felicitated as the Acharya Mahamandaleshwar of Atal Peetha."

The most auspicious events happen on our planet by the will of the Divine. It is the good fortune of this land that the manifestation of Divine energy in the form of Acharya Śri Mahamandaleshwar Śri Swami NITHYĀNANDA ji Maharaj has happened in this place (NITHYĀNANDA Peetham, Bengaluru Aadheenam), which was once a forest.

There is a shruti (Vedic mantra) - te tenaiva brunute - It is chosen by Itself (to) come here and reawaken the fortune of this land! Lord Krishna says in the Bhagavad Gita, "The sacred knowledge gets destroyed by the influence of Time." This knowledge had been destroyed by the effect of Time and the time had come for it to be re-established, so It got Him. [...]

While associating with NITHYĀNANDA ji Maharaj, I have seen that there is so much spiritual activism in Him. Why will a self-realized being, a yogi, a sannyasi, a dedicated jnani (wise soul) involve Himself in the activities of the world? Why will He build temples or buildings? This is out of His compassion for all the jivas (living beings). I am overjoyed to see such a great yogi, a mahapurusha (elevated soul), delivering spiritual teachings through so many centers around the world and transforming the lives of so many people, wiping their tears and suffering, reaching out to them in their homes by the power of his words. He is indeed doing a great spiritual service to the people. I offer my gratitude to Swamiji.

KĀSHI SARVAJNAPEETHA
OLDER THAN HISTORY ITSELF

ORIGINS

- Established by Paramasiva as Vishvanath in the sacred city of Kāshi (Varanasi)
- Passed to Devi Jagadhatri, a form of Devi Parāśakti
- Continuously protected over millennia by Paramasiva in the eternal city of Kāshi
- Integral in proliferating the Vedanta tradition

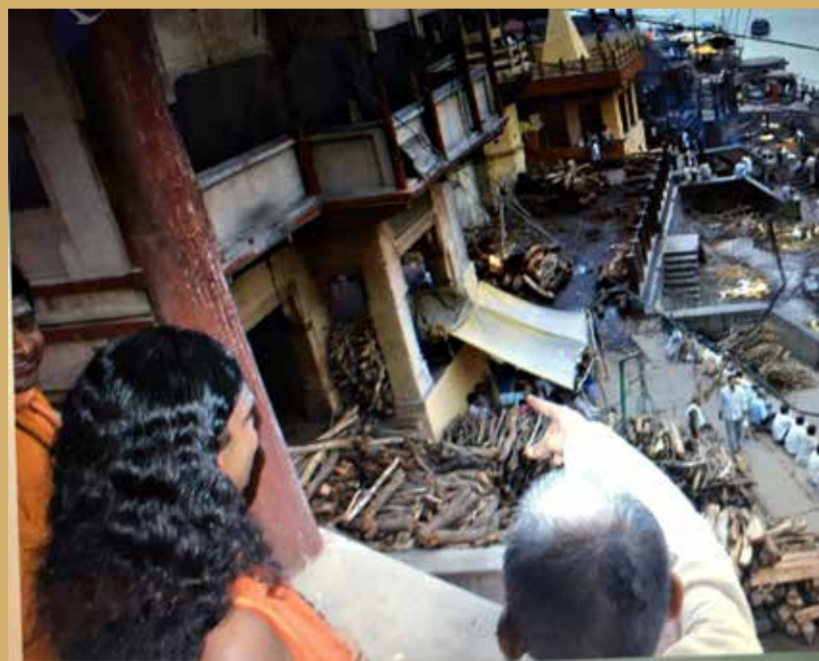

ISLAMIC INVASIONS

Though Kāshi is one of the most sacred sites for the entire global Hindu diaspora, it has faced a continuous struggle to stay alive through invasions, conquests, and attacks. In the medieval era, the kingdom was barraged repeatedly, each time rebuilding itself with the devotion of its citizens and rulers.

1136 CE | Qutub-ud-din-aibak destroyed 1,000 temples

1346-1496 CE | Feroh Shah and Sikandar Lodi attempt to annihilate Hindus from the city

1700s | Aurangzeb besieged the city, looted and destroyed the temples multiple times, and ordered the construction of mosques in the place of Hindu temples.

ANNEXATION OF KĀSHI

In 1948, Kāshi, a city revered for millennia as one of Hinduism's holiest sites, was annexed into the Indian Union by Jawaharlal Nehru, India's first Prime Minister. Hindus had endured countless persecutions over thousands of years, but with this act, they lost a sacred site that held immense spiritual significance for their faith.

CORONATION

By the late 20th century, the Kāshi Sarvajnapeetha needed revival. In a pivotal moment in 1999, Swami Hamsananda Puri, an enlightened being and guru of THE SPH's Vedanta guru, Vibhutananda Puri, coronated the Supreme Pontiff as the rightful successor to the revered Kāshi Sarvajnapeetha.

REVIVAL

Liladar Swarup, the last inheritor of the Ruling Seat of Kashi Sarvajnapeetha at Manikarnika Ghat, left his inheritance to THE SPH in his will. He trusted Sri Tiruchi Swamigal and pontiffs from Atal Peetha and Mahanirvani Peetha, Sri Sukhudevanandaji, and Vishvadevanandaji, to protect the throne until THE SPH took reign. In 2008, following their guidance and blessings, Radheshyam Khemka, Geetha Press trustee, handed over the kingdom to THE SPH.

SIGNIFICANCE OF THIS KINGDOM

- The tradition which protects and upholds the sacred knowledge of Hinduism
- The only source of the Science of Enlightenment and made available for modern humanity en mass including the Prastana Traya:
 - Bhagavad Gita
 - Brahma Sutras
 - 108 Upanishads
 - Translated into 108+ languages

2008: NITHYĀNANDA Peetham established on the banks of Ganga at Manikarnika Ghat

MODERN DAY PERSECUTION

After losing its sovereignty, the Hindu heritage sites have been systematically purloined, eroding the sacred landscape of this ancient kingdom.

On 6 June 2020, the temple of the Kāshi Sarvajnapeetha at the sacred Manikarnika Ghat, Varanasi was illegally razed to the ground using heavy machinery and earth-movers. Monks of the Sovereign Order of NITHYĀNANDA were inside when the demolition began and barely escaped with their life.

2020: The illegal demolition of the Kāshi Sarvajnapeetha temple

“ I am so happy to see Swamiji, radiating peace and leading people into the path of peace.

“ I want to tell the people - some people who just criticized Swamiji, that when you are criticizing a Master, you are criticizing God Himself. And he is saying, you can never criticize God, you can never criticize a Saint, you can never criticize Dharma.

“ Whenever any great soul comes, like Shankaracharya, always comes down to protect religion. And whenever a Saint appears, is to spread and protect religion. The person who does everything for others' benefits is to be worshipped only. ”

HISTORY

The Adi Peetha Kolada Matha (religious kingdom):

- Existed well before Bengaluru city for at least 7,000 years
- First known as “Bhairaagi Bhavan” and was an epicenter for the fine arts including music and dance from the space of enlightenment
- Today it is the strongest spiritual force of the region known to have produced spiritual giants like Tiruchy Swami

Paramaśiva worshiped in the form of Śiva Linga, Jalakanteshwara, the presiding deity of the Kolada Matha

ILLEGAL ANNEXATION OF THE ADI PEETHA SARVAJNAPEETHA

For generations, the kings of Mysore, known as Maharajas, were ceremoniously initiated by the Kolada Matha. Regent rulers across the region held the Kolada Matha in the highest regard for its profound wisdom, often seeking its counsel for pivotal decisions. The history of the Mysore kingdom thus tells the history of the Adi Peetha Sarvajnapaetha:

- 1767 - 1799 | 3 Anglo-Mysore wars were fought between Hyder Ali, his son Tipu Sultan, and British East India Company. These wars exacted a heavy toll on the Hindu populace, who were coerced into armed service and often meeting tragic fates on the battlefield.
- Under the dominion of Hyder Ali and Tipu Sultan, a dark shadow of religious persecution loomed over the land. Hindu soldiers were forcibly converted to Islam prior to engaging in warfare. Many temples were destroyed or desecrated due to religious intolerance.
- 1947 | After India gained independence from Britain in 1947, the Indian states were reorganized under Article 370 of the Constitution of India. The Maharajah Jayachamarajendra was coerced into signing the instrument of accession, a treaty deemed illegal, as it exceeded his rightful authority to sign.

- Entering into the 21st century, Śri Shantaveera Mahaswami, the last successor of the Adi Peetha Sarvajnapaetha, as well as Śri Tiruchy Swami sought the perfect successor to bring the kingdom back to its original glory.
- This kingdom played a crucial role in THE SPH's mission to revive the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization in the Karnataka region.

CORONATION OF THE SPH AS THE SUCCESSOR OF ADI PEETHA SARVAJNAPEETHA

Since 2002, THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM has been dedicatedly serving this ancient kingdom's people and was officially coronated the successor by Śri Shantaveera Mahaswami in 2015. THE SPH's activism for preserving Hinduism and its heritage through Adi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapaetha continues unabated. THE SPH has extended services to revive other ancient monasteries and their lineages across the region.

14 September 2015 - Coronation Ceremony - THE SPH officially was coronated by Shantaveera Mahaswami in front of an assembly of other pontiffs who witnessed the auspicious happening.

SHANTAVEERA MAHASWAMI DECLARES THE SPH AS SUCCESSOR

In the Adi Peetha Sarvajnapaetha, Basavanna and Akka Mahadevi were renowned enlightened leaders of its history, who sowed Veera Shaivism, an indigenous tradition into the daily lifestyle and core belief of the kingdom's populace. It was here the oldest surviving Hindu Parliament, Anubhava Mantapa, originated. The Anubhava Mantapa promulgated equal participation of all gender and class in the decision-making process, predating the democratic revolutions of the West by several centuries.

ILLEGAL ANNEXATION OF THE KAMALA PEETHA SARVAJNAPEETHA

1759 | Thiruvarur was captured by the French and ransacked. The French troops of Commander Lally invaded the temple in an attempt to look for hidden treasure. Outraged at their failure, the troops mercilessly murdered six priests of the temple. The murder of the priests meant the annihilation of the sacred knowledge that was passed down from generation to generation for centuries.

1799 | In the Treaty of 1799, Thiruvarur was annexed along with Thanjavur by the British after the Anglo-Mysore Wars. At this time, all social and political legitimacy of the kingdom was lost. The kingdom's strength slowly dwindled. A million Hindus were stripped of their sacred heritage.

HISTORY OF KARANTHAI

This kingdom's ruling Seat is the "Kashi Vishwanatha temple of the South" having the same presiding deities in the world renowned Kashi Vishwanatha temple in the North (Varanasi or Kashi). The deities are Kashi Vishwanatha and His Divine Consort, Kashi Vishalakshi.

The Paramasiva Linga from Kashi was installed by King Karikala Chola (almost 2000 years ago) when he returned from a visit to North India.

Another presiding deity here is Karuvurar Siddhar, the Kula Guru of King Rajaraja Chola. The temple is worshiped as a sacred place of liberation (mukthi stal) just like Kashi, giving liberation to departed souls.

ŚRI PALAYA JNANADESIKAR SWAMIGAL

The ancient Palswamy Mutt and Shankara Mutt are the sacred and traditional Ruling Seat of the Kingdom of Thanjavur. The great enlightened sage, Palaya Jnanadesikar Swamigal founded the kingdom. Among several of his spiritual powers, he was known for disappearing in one place and appearing in another. The people of the kingdom cherished that the Divine lived among them and built a Spiritual Seat to enshrine his deity and worship him.

ISLAMIC INVASION OF THE KINGDOM OF THANJAVUR

- This Kingdom was ruled by Chola Dynasty, with brief respites of the Pandya Dynasty beginning from the first millennia B.C.E
- 1311 -The Islamic forces of Malik Kafur raised the Kingdom of Thanjavur which was again annexed by the Delhi Sultanate. This marked the end of the Chola Dynasty in Thanjavur, and the denizens of the kingdom were robbed of their own glorious history.
- 1350's - The Vijayanagara Dynasty subdued the Sultanate influence over Thanjavur.
- 1674 - The Rajput King Ekoji I, half brother of Chatrapati Shivaji of the Bhonsle Dynasty, conquered Thanjavur and safeguarded the kingdom from further Islamic invasion
- The Maratha line of Thanjavur ("Tanjore") kings ruled Thanjavur through the British Occupation.

Rajput King Ekoji I

THE DOCTRINE OF LAPSE

Maratha kings of Thanjavur retained sovereignty through the 17th and 18th century

- 1787 - Serfoji became a minor Raja but the regent King deposed his throne
- 1799 - In a twisted strategy, the British restored Serfoji to the throne but forced him to relinquish most of his administration of Thanjavur
- 1855 - The British used the lack of a legitimate heir ("Doctrine of Lapse") after Shivaji II to absorb the Kingdom of Thanjavur into British India

ŚIVA LINGA INSTALLED BY KING RAJARAJA CHOLAN I

The Śiva Linga in the Sarvajnapeetha was installed by the great King Rajaraja Chola. This ancient Ruling Seat also served as a crucial link between the religious and administrative domains. Preceding the renowned Brihadeeshwara Temple, this Ruling Seat has stood the test of time, bearing witness to the rich cultural heritage that defines Thanjavur's history.

REVIVAL OF THE SŪRYA VAMSA CHOLA SAMRAJYA

- In 2014, Swami Atmanandaji saw for himself that the ancient Sanātana Hindu kingdom was in dire need of revival and decided to coronate THE SPH as the next successor
- He handed over both the Ruling Seats of Palswamy Mutt and Shankara Mutt to THE SPH.
- The people of the Kingdom celebrated the restoration of the Thanjavur Sarvajnapeetha and the coronation of THE SPH as the head of the ancient kingdom
- Revitalized socio-spiritual initiatives and humanitarian aid such as free food distribution (anna daan) and the sacred knowledge of Living Enlightenment
- Regular rituals were once again offered to the ancient deities of the Palswamy and Shankarasamy Mutt

FOREIGN RULERS

In an era marked by prosperity, the Chola Dynasty flourished as a center for trade, arts, and culture. To capitalize on this abundance, the Dutch Coromandel relocated their capital to Nagapattinam within the Chola Kingdom in 1690.

- The intrusion of foreign occupiers and significant impact of anti-Hindu entities have resulted in the tragic disappearance of revered Hindu traditions.

ORIGINS

- During the origins of the Universe, the Primordial Divinity, Paramasiva, manifested as Lingodbhava, an infinite shaft of light, what modern science understands as the Big Bang.
- This is celebrated as the ancient festival of Karthigai Deepam, the oldest festival in the world
- After this, Paramasiva promised to be continuously available to humanity in three forms in Tiruvannamalai (a small town located in South India) -- the Arunachala Hill, the Arunachaleshwara Linga, and the continuous stream of living incarnations.
- Thus began the sacred lineage of incarnations of Arunachala and the spiritual kingdom of Arunagiri Yogishwara Arunachala Sarvajnapeetha in Tiruvannamalai .

The world-famous Arunachaleshwara temple in Tiruvannamalai has been built around the sacred, self-manifesting (svayambhu) Arunachaleshwara Linga. Dynasty after dynasty, Hindu kings, have poured their wealth into this temple, dedicated to serving and protecting Arunachaleshwara, their most supreme Lord.

THE UNIQUENESS OF EACH INCARNATION

Out of compassion and adherence to the sincere prayers of devotees, Paramasiva continues to manifest in Tiruvannamalai as living incarnations from time immemorial. It is not that one person trains the other. Each of these incarnations were self-manifesting (svayambhu), natural incarnations but the chain was never cut.

They have guided the kingdom and kept the Science of Enlightenment alive age after age.

1012-1054
CHOLA DYNASTY

Under Chola rule, the construction of the first circumambulation of the Arunachaleshwara temple was completed.

1342
MUGHAL INVASIONS & THE BRAVE KING VALLALAH MAHARAJAH

King Vallalah Maharajah was one of the most famous Kings ruling Tiruvannamalai, known for his devotion and bravery.

While under Hoysala rule, the Mughal invader Giazuddin attacked Tiruvannamalai to loot the enormous temple treasure.

For 30 years, King Vallalah Maharajah defended the kingdom from Mughal invasion.

Under the guise of a peace treaty, the Mughal terrorist invited King Vallalah for a meeting where he captured, killed, and skinned him at 80 years of age.

Before giving his life as a martyr, the king ensured that the Arunachaleshwara Temple and Tiruvannamalai were protected.

PARAMASIVA DEMONSTRATES THE ULTIMATE RESPONSIBILITY

“When the King left the body and went to Kailasa, Paramasiva did not just let his kingdom suffer without the King. Paramasiva Himself comes down and takes the responsibility of the sṛṣṭi (creation). He gets coronated. He starts ruling the whole dynasty because the dynasty always trusted Paramasiva as the real King. They are representatives of Paramasiva and ruling that kingdom.”

The Tiruvannamalai temple is the largest Shaivite temple in the world and draws millions of devotees from across the globe annually, and along with it large revenue.

Since HR&CE, has taken over, resources of the temple have been steadily misappropriated and the hard-earned wealth given by devotees has been illegally funneled into other activities.

From this age, THE SPH began observing the Chaturmasya Vratam, a sacred period of austerities, and assumed the roles and responsibilities as THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM.

In 1994, THE SPH was coronated as the successor of the sacred, illustrious lineage of Arunachala by the most powerful Gurus of Tiruvannamalai including Mataji Vibhutananda Puri, Yogananda Puri, Śri Isakki Swamigal, Yogi Ramsurat Kumar, Narayana Swami Pillai, and many more.

TEMPLE LAND BESIEGED

HR&CE decides to build a commercial shopping complex on the sanctified temple grounds, funding the project with the temple's own funds, estimated at $771K.

UNESCO has expressed concerns about this infringement on such an important ancient cultural heritage.

The entire ecosystem of Tiruvannamalai revolves around the temple. For the townspeople, the temple is a central part of their day. For the endangered indigenous communities, it was a part of their very livelihood. With the destruction of this ecosystem, these communities are on the verge of extinction.

A ROYAL LINEAGE

THE SPH's family is a direct descendant of Vallalah Maharajah and is from the temple community (Kovil Saarnidha Kudi or the community dedicated for the temple), who run the administration.

THE REVIVAL

The Adi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapetha has been revived by THE SPH as an extension of the Adi Peetha Sarvajnapetha.

In 2002, THE SPH was felicitated in Bangalore by Śri Tiruchy Swami of the famous Kailash Ashram. At this time, Śri Shantaveera Mahaswami of the Adi Peetha Kolada Mutt selected THE SPH as his successor.

Before donating the sacred land of Adi KAILĀSA, the former owner, Śri Pratap Rao, had a divine vision of Paramasiva, guiding him to offer the land at the feet of THE SPH as the incarnation of Paramasiva.

Śri Pratap Rao sought the guidance of Śri Tiruchy Swami and Śri Shantaveera Mahaswami who directed him to meet THE SPH in Omkar Hills. Soon after, he met THE SPH and immediately offered the sacred land to Paramasiva Himself.

Thus began the revival of the Adi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapetha. With THE SPH's dedication and sincere hard work, today this powerful energy field is experienced by millions as an epicenter for enlightenment and a sacred pilgrimage site for the global Hindu diaspora. From its revival, the Adi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapetha, has been the beacon of spiritual awakening for a countless number of people in search of the highest spiritual ambition, laymen and prominent dignitaries alike.

Archaeological remains indicate the existence of a human civilization in Salem during the Paleolithic and Neolithic ages. Evidence shows that the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization has thrived here for more than 10,000 years.

HINDU DYNASTIES

Various Hindu dynasties have ruled the region of Salem, carrying forward the great Hindu sciences. Under the Pallava dynasty, the Saila Siddha Sarvajnapeetha emerged as a powerful epicenter in the 4th century BCE. The Shaivite tradition and lifestyle flourished under the Pallava administration.

ORIGINS

KAILĀSA Paramparagatha Thiruchengode Sarvajnapeetha is an extension of the KAILĀSA Paramparagatha Kanchi KAILĀSA Sarvajnapeetha and therefore shares the same history. Thiruchengode Sarvajnapeetha was the second enlightenment ecosystem revived by THE SPH.

LOST HERITAGE

- The sacred land of this kingdom was once the abode of an ancient temple. It was the home of:
 1. the primordial deity of the Kingdom (Moola Linga) that holds the Blueprint of KAILĀSA as revealed by THE SPH
 2. the sacred mortal remains (Jeeva Samadhi) of an earlier pontiff of Thondaimandalam
- It was in hopeless remains after the invasion of the Madurai Sultanate.
- 1799 - The region came under the control of the British East India Company and the Mysore Maharajah.

REVIVAL

In 2001, the abandoned land was still waiting to be revived when THE SPH arrived here on the banks of the sacred River Cauvery.

At this time, THE SPH healed a countless number of people, exemplifying different techniques from indigenous medicine. Hence, the very ground exudes a profound imprint of THE SPH at an intensely grassroots level. The people actively preserve and venerate that memory through transformative initiatives.

ORIGINS

In the Śrī Vidya tradition (sampradaya), there are 11 lineages, which worship the Mother Goddess, Devī Paramaśiva Śakti. Bhagavān Sadaśiva Rishi was the founder of one of these lineages.

In the region of Bhagyanagara, in present-day Hyderabad, India, Bhagavān Sadaśiva Rishi once worshipped the Mother Goddess in her form as Rajarajeshwari.

Thus, it became a holy site for the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization which evolved around it, building a temple dedicated to Devi.

The great Sātavāhana dynasty ruled this region for several centuries, followed by numerous other Hindu dynasties. Hinduism flourished in the region during this era.

The land where Bhagavān Sadaśiva once worshipped Devi Rajarajeshwari and where the Śripuram temple now resides

INVASIONS

With the Islamic invasions, beginning in the 14th century, the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization was severely affected, losing their land and livelihood. In this era, the ancient temple dedicated to Devi was annihilated without a trace. The tradition continued but the sacred heritage site and the land were lost.

Bhagavān Sadaśiva personally performed worship (puja) to this silver deity of Devi Rajarajeshwari thousands of years ago, beginning one of the lineages of the Śrī Vidya tradition (worship of the Divine Mother)

- Many centuries later, Bhagavān Śrī Sathya Sai Baba (a powerful incarnation) materialized this deity and gave it to a devotee, pointing at the exact place where Sadashiva worshipped Devi and instructed the devotee to build a temple.
- As instructed, the devotee built the temple.

THE SPH DECLARED AS THE SUCCESSOR

- Recognizing THE SPH as an incarnation of Sadaśiva, Śrī Sathya Sai Baba declared THE SPH as the successor of the Śripura Sarvajnapeetha.
- Śrī Sathya Sai Baba reappeared again in the life of the devotee who built the temple and instructed her to offer the temple at the feet of THE SPH, nearly 30 years after it was constructed.
- As soon as THE SPH heard the vision of Śrī Sathya Sai Baba, THE SPH personally visited Kanchipuram, one of the most important temples of Devī, to receive Her blessings for accepting the Kingdom.

REVIVAL

- At the time, one of the world-renowned Hindu pontiffs, the 69th Kanchi Shankaracharya, Jayendra Saraswati, confirmed to THE SPH that the vision of Śrī Sathya Sai Baba was indeed true. THE SPH then decided to accept the responsibility of the kingdom of Śripura as its King.
- In honor of this auspicious occasion, Kanchi Shankaracharya Jayendra Saraswati gifted a golden life-size Meru to THE SPH, recognizing and revering THE SPH as an incarnation. This Meru has been in the Kanchi Kamakshi temple for over a century.

~ Śrī Śrī Śrī Dr. Shantaveera Mahaswamiji, pontiff of Kolada Matha Mahasamsthana, Karnataka, India

The president of the Akhil Bharatiya Akhada Parishad (leading apex body for millions of Hindu monks) recognized, revered and worshiped THE SPH as the Incarnation of Paramashiva. In 2015, he coronated THE SPH with the title of, "THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM" officially.

"He is the backbone of the Vedic Dharma. Whatever Swamiji does, Swamiji only does as per the Vedic Dharma and completely only that.

The kind of work that Swamiji is doing not only in India but all over the world for that the Government of India has to recognize Him and honor Swamiji for the work that He is doing."

CONCLUSION

The 2015 coronation of THE SPH marked a pivotal turning point for the history of Hinduism and, indeed, in the broader history of humanity.

Civilizations have risen and fallen throughout the annals of human history. Out of all the most ancient civilizations, only one civilization stands resilient, enduring from its inception through the ages— the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization. Despite facing persecution and ethnocide, Hinduism has not only endured but has reemerged on the global stage, propelled by the visionary zeal of a singular soul. The Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism BHAGAVĀN Śrī NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM is the visionary force behind the conception and manifestation of KAILĀSA, the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilizational nation. KAILĀSA stands as the foremost and first nation for Hindus, revived with the divine vision to administer, support, serve, cater and govern all the religious and spiritual needs of 2 billion born and practicing Hindus. The Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA comprises 60 Orders forming the world's largest and oldest religious order of Hindu monks.

"Hinduism has a reason to exist. We have something great to contribute to the world. We have a great science to offer to the world – Super Conscious Science. Our ancestors worked, gave their whole life to develop this science, to realize this science of Super Consciousness."

The festivities began with a grand royal welcome in the city of Ujjain where the Simhastha Kumbh Mela was held. Millions of Hindus and spiritual seekers from across the globe flooded the streets to witness the historical event, eager to have their first physical glimpse (darshan) of THE SPH. The crowds showered flowers and bowed down in deep reverence with offerings of instrumental music, fruits, and other traditional gifts, each one overflowing with gratitude. THE SPH continuously blessed the crowd, receiving their love and showering His grace upon them.

The monks (nagas), after a lifetime of rigorous yogic training (tapas), offer the highest honor to the ultimate embodiment of Super Consciousness, THE SPH, by pulling THE SPH's chariot with only their genital organs. This sacred ritual is offered only to the incarnation of Paramaśiva out of deep devotion and reverence.

SOVEREIGN ORDER OF KAILĀSA'S NITHYĀNANDA

OLDEST GOVERNING BODY

The Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA (SOKN) is the oldest governing body for Hinduism. It is the largest organized Hindu body since time immemorial, originating from Paramaśiva Himself.

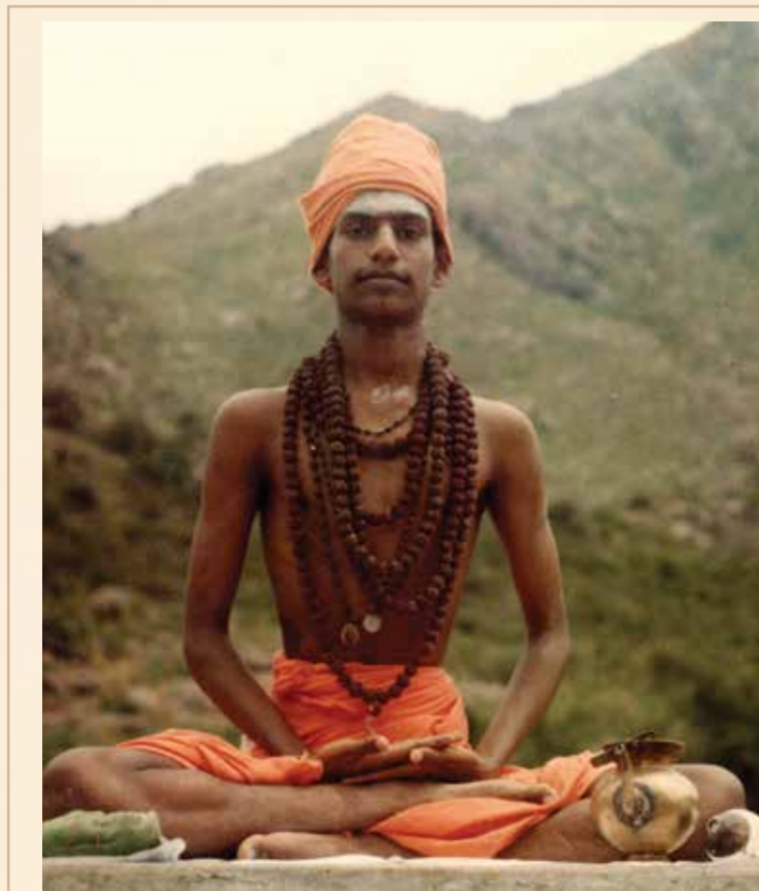

REVIVAL

The Hindu Governance as described by Paramaśiva is presently revived by the 1008th living incarnation of Paramaśiva, THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM, JAGATGURU MAHASANNIDHANAM HIS DIVINE HOLINESS BHAGAVĀN ŚRI NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM since 1981 from just three years of age. Over the last 40+ years, THE SPH has re-established the legitimacy of SOKN, building diplomatic relations with nations and other religious entities.

3000+ YEARS OF RECORDED HISTORY OF SOKN

The Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA has a history from Paramaśiva. However, the historical records only begin 3125 years ago with the incarnation, Tirujnanasambandar, reviving the Madurai Aadheenam after Devi Meenakshi and Bhagavān Sundareshwara. In the modern day, The Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA has been revived by THE SPH in 1994 and has formed into a legal body in recent years.

The Madurai Aadheenam Mother document, the formative document for this ancient entity, shows this historical record. It describes how Tirujnanasambandar revived the Madurai Aadheenam during his life time of just 16 years, before merging with Paramaśiva. It dates this happening approximately 2000 years after Kali was born which is approximately 3125 years ago.

THE OLDEST MONASTIC TRADITIONS

The Atal Akhada and Mahanirvani Akhadas are the oldest monastic traditions in history, beginning with Paramaśiva Himself. These ancient institutions have upheld the monastic lifestyle for millennia and have acted as the guardians of Hinduism throughout history. As the apex body of Hinduism, the Akhada tradition boasts more than a million sanyasis. THE SPH is the successor and reviver of these great lineages, raising them to their original glory.

Desirous of looking into the administrative business (of the government and governance of the country and the legal cases), the king shall enter the sabha, with humility, along with brāhmaṇas - the educated ones in those fields - and ministers - thinkers and administrators in those fields who are knowledgeable in giving the right advice.

Manu Smriti Chapter 8, Verse 1

The term 'Responsible Democracy' is defined as a form of government in which people who have expertise in that field are given voting rights in that field.

The same tradition has been handed over to Me from My guru paramapara and I have revived it."

The 'NITHYĀNANDA Shruti' section of the Cosmic Constitution is perpetual and cannot be amended in any way at any time as it embodies the Ultimate Truths of the Cosmos and life as revealed, explained, and established by THE SPH

ABOUT KAILĀSA'S JUSTICE SYSTEM

1. Based on pure dharma (cosmic law) as revealed by Paramaśiva and the understanding of prayaschitta (realization, completion, and realignment to the Ultimate).
2. Paramaśiva's system does not judge a being as innocent or guilty. It only reminds a person about his or her fundamental purpose of life to realize he or she is Paramaśiva already. Any miss or non-alignment to this truth is realigned with prayaschitta and hence does not engender the biggest delusion of modern society: fear.
3. Based on the Veda-Āgamas and scriptures revealed by Paramaśiva.

The Hindu community is an active and vibrant part of Canada and the Hindu people are woven into the very fabric of this nation.

My life has been touched and enriched by the Hindu people, most notably among my fellow senators.

I see the strength of the Hindu people every day and I am proud to have them among my friends and colleagues.

In these strange and trying times that have been laid before us by a global pandemic, it is heartening to see such a strong sense of community after so many months apart.

I wish you a joyous and meaningful celebration amongst friends, family, and community and to a happy and fulfilling year ahead.

ANITA ANAND
MEMBER OF PARLIAMENT
OAKVILLE

Hello and Namaste,

As Canada's first Hindu Cabinet Minister, I would like to wish you all a very happy Hindu Heritage Month. Each November, we take the opportunity to recognize the outstanding contributions that Hindu Canadians have made and continue to make to our province and to our country.

Ontario is home to a vibrant Hindu population and Hindu Canadians from across the province have made contributions in a wide variety of fields. Throughout the pandemic, many Hindu Canadians were at the forefront of our fight against COVID-19. I would like to extend my sincerest thanks to those who have helped to keep our communities safe. Hindu Organizations like KAILASA Canada have stepped up to raise funds, donate meals for the most needy and support our seniors throughout the pandemic. This month, we remember, celebrate, and educate all Ontarians and Canadians about the important role that the Hindu community has played throughout our history.

It is my pleasure, as the Member of Parliament for Oakville, to extend my greetings to the Supreme Pontiff of Hinduism Jagatguru Mahasannidhanam His Divine Holiness Bhagavan Nithyananda Paramashivam and to KAILASA Canada for organizing this online event, bringing the Hindu Canadian community together to celebrate and educate future generations about the Hindu ecosystem and its contribution to Canadian society at large. My sincerest apologies that I am not able to join you today, and I hope to connect with you all again soon. Wishing you a very happy Hindu Heritage Month.

Thank you. Namaste.

Sincerely Yours,

Anita Anand

The United Nations has recognized the multi-level persecution of THE SPH BHAGAVĀN ŚRĪ NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM and of the ethnocide and genocide of Hindus. come to light on a global stage, solely because of the sheer dedication to justice for Hindus on the part of THE SPH. The UN Office of the High Commission of Human Rights has published 14 reports by KAILĀSA where the most accurate history of ethnocide is brought to the attention of international audiences for the first time.

The expanse of Hindu knowledge was once as large as 100 million scriptures, covering every fathomable subject in the universe. The majority of all these texts are now lost, as well as the universities that protected and researched them destroyed. Among them was:

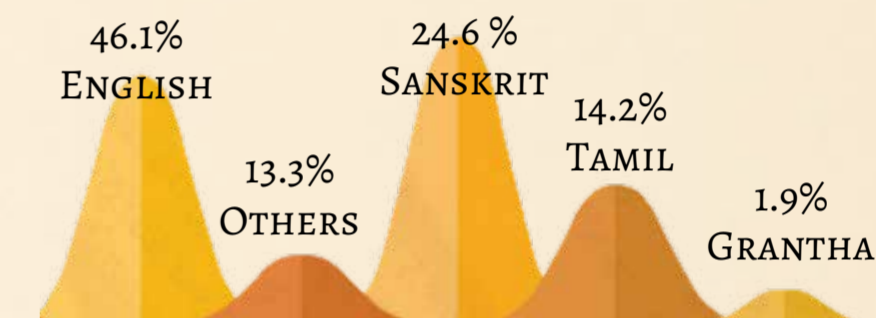

The Nalanda University

- Headed by the brightest minds of Sanātana Hindu civilization like Aryabhata
- Home of a magnificent 9-story library
- Safe-house for 100 million scriptures
- Destroyed in 12-century by Bakhtiyar Khilji
- Took 6 and a half months to burn the entire library

Today, THE SPH is reviving these texts by collecting them from all over the Sanātana Hindu civilization that once was and making them available in one place

INDIGENOUS RIGHTS & ANCIENT HERITAGE

The ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization is the oldest living civilization with 16,500 years of recorded history. The oldest indigenous heritage in history is the Arunachala Sarvajnapeetha, located in Tiruvannamalai, South India.

Indigenous traditions originating from North and South America are very closely related to the ancient enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilization. Research has shown that these Native communities' temple structures are found to closely follow the Veda-Āgamas.

Today, as the most ancient tradition, KAILĀSA stands for and aims towards:

- Uniting all indigenous traditions from around the world
- The rights to observe knowledge tradition
- Reviving, protecting, and preserving endangered lineages

ENDANGERED LINEAGES

- More than 60 orders that were extinct or on the brink of extinction are being revived by the Sovereign Order of KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA
- For each order, the associated knowledge tradition is also being revived to support an individual in their path and create the right ecosystem for their survival

PRESERVATION & RESTORATION OF ANCIENT TEMPLES & HERITAGE

KAILASONNATA SHYAMALAPEETHA SARVAJNAPEETHA
11,000 YEARS OLD

- 1 million deities made out of stone, panchaloha (5-metal), marble, etc.
- Revival of the ancient indigenous art forms, including Chettinad architecture

GLOBAL PEACE

Invocations for Peace Echoed by The Rishis of Sanātana Hindu Civilization:

ॐ पूर्णमदः पूर्णमिदम् पूर्णात् पूर्णमुदच्यते |
पूर्णस्य पूर्णमादाय पूर्णमेवावशिष्यते ||
|| ॐ शान्तिः शान्तिः शान्तिः ||

Completion remains Complete even when Completion is removed from Completion.
Completion remains Complete even when the Completion dissolves into Completion.

Om Poornamadhah Poornamidham Poornaath
Poornam Udhachyathey
|Poornasya Poornamaadhaaya
Poornamevaavasishyathey ||
|| Om Shanthi Shanthi Shanthihi ||

- Shanti Mantra, Ishavasya Upanishad

"I can see clearly that when these mantras were uttered very first time on the planet Earth, the path for civilization was getting delivered, the unadulterated, undiluted purpose for human civilization, was getting delivered. The whole ambience - charged with peace."

- THE SPH

KAILĀSA is reviving this very civilization, founded in peace and expanding in bliss. THE SPH has spearheaded several initiatives to establish peace inside of us first and to radiate it to the whole community.

10,000+ kilometers walked in pada yatras (peace walks)

Rituals done in massive scales geared for ushering peace in the individual, community, and globe

24/7 meditation relays, attended in 12+ time zones

1 BILLION +
MINUTES FOR PEACE
ACHIEVED THROUGH:

A continuous collective meditation effort, Akhanda Nirvikalpa Samadhi Jnana Yagna, is performed daily in KAILĀSA ecosystems across the globe to heal the world and spread vibrations of peace.

KAILĀSA's agenda for global peace is also achieved through interfaith initiatives such as

DISASTER RELIEF FIRST RESPONDER

KAILĀSA's NITHYĀNANDA Annalayas continued distributing meals for areas in need during the COVID-19 Pandemic, in multiple cities around the world.

In January 2012, a mega-kitchen was set up in less than 24 hours after Cyclone Thane struck in Pondicherry, Tamil Nadu. This impromptu, remote kitchen served 100,000 meals per day until the surrounding population recovered.

In April 2016, KAILĀSA set up a fully equipped mega-kitchen in Ujjain within 24 hours for the Simhasth Kumbh Mela. Even when the worst cyclone hit Ujjain, kitchens continued serving throughout the storms.

ANIMAL RIGHTS & SUSTAINABLE LIVING

In the Vedic civilization, the divine is worshiped and revered in all living beings animals, plants, insects in whichever kingdom they fall.

The Revival of the Ancient Enlightened Sanātana
Hindu Civilizational Nation

“Oh, Hindus wake up! Wake up! We have a great responsibility. We have the great responsibility to practice, protect, preserve, and spread Hinduism, The Ancient Enlightened Sanātana Hindu Dharma, the greater science of life.

The one and only purpose of KAILĀSA is to revive the Ancient Enlightened Sanātana Hindu civilizational nation.”

-THE SPH

There were once 49 documented ancient civilizations such as the Egyptian, Mesopotamian and various other ancient civilizations.

Each civilization had different technologies for creating energy without destroying nature, without putting Planet Earth at risk.

But in just the last 400 years, 48 out of 49 ancient civilizations were uprooted.

Out of the 49 ancient civilizations, the Enlightened Sanātana Hindu Civilizational Nation emerges as the only lasting ancient civilization, barely surviving into the 21st century.

The Enlightened Sanātana Hindu Civilizational Nation is now under siege. It is getting destroyed; it is barely alive. It is in ICU. Eight hundred years of brutal wars and two hundred years of extreme brainwashing.

Hinduism is the most non-violent, peace-loving, and contributing tradition but anti-Hindus wrote their history with the blood of Hindus with centuries of persecution.

For the first time in millennia, the silenced sufferings of 2 billion Hindus have finally come to an end.

“Hinduism is real. Hindu ancestors wrote their history inside the DNA of Hindus. Future of humanity is dependent on the revival of Hinduism. It needs to be kept alive for humanity to be alive, for Planet Earth to be alive.”

-THE SPH

This book delves into the rich history and advanced knowledge of a civilization that mastered what modern day science has only begun to uncover and offer a glimpse into the incomprehensible, revival work of THE SUPREME PONTIFF OF HINDUISM BHAGAVĀN NITHYĀNANDA PARAMASHIVAM.
